We value your feedback

We want to know what you think about our services.

This includes any complaints you might have.

We believe people have a right to speak up because it helps us to understand:

- what works
- what doesn’t work
- how we can make our services better.

We will listen to you because we want to make things better for our clients.
We want to give you high-quality care and services to meet your needs.

This means that if you have a problem with our services, we will:

- fix it as quickly as we can
- let you know how we are going with fixing it.

If we can’t fix your problem, we will tell you why.

If we can’t help you, we will try and find someone who can.
How to give us your feedback

There are lots of ways that you can give us your feedback.

You can talk to our staff about any problems you are having.

You can also:

- send us an email – quality@spectrumvic.org.au
